About the Educator: Hannah Baartman’s early exposure to the St. Louis Shakespeare Festival’s elementary school touring show and Forest Park performances sparked an infatuation with Shakespeare’s works that has never ebbed. It would eventually drive her to perform on Shakespeare’s Globe stage in London, and in 2020 it came full circle performing with the last St. Louis Shakespeare Festival Education Tour. For 6 years, she has designed curriculum and taught theater education programs. She is thrilled to be sharing her fascination for Shakespeare with her beloved hometown. If you have any thoughts/questions or just want to connect, you can reach Hannah at hannah@stlshakes.org or (314) 808-0924.
