

GUEST TEACHING & WORKSHOPS

FOR THE CLASSROOM

Up to 60 Minute Class Sessions
($150 per hour or $650 for five hours)

"Shakes 101 (Customizable to your Curriculum needs)

- Pick your play!
- Hands-On exercises for grasping Shakespeare's stories
- Stage scenes for an optional school showcase!

"Trippingly on the Tongue" - English Literature Focus

- Why Iambic Pentameter
- Easter Egg hunting with Shakespeare's Secret Code
- Poetic Devices as Clues to Actors and Audiences

"Shakespeare Shenanigans" - For Young Elementary

- Fun Phrases and Tongue Twisters
- Wiggly Character Exercises
- Elizabethan Crest Coloring

Up to 120 Minute Class Sessions
($150 per hour or $650 for five hours)

"Speak the Speech" Shakespeare Studio

- The Actor's Toolbox
- Suit the Action to the Word
- Playing Shakespeare's Mind Games

Strutting and Fretting" Audition Prep or Intro to Shakespearean Performance for School Productions

- Preparing a Shakespearean side
- Standing Shakespeare's Ground
- Acting Hints in Shakespeare's Verse

Book a Performance For Your School, Class & Community

"Hamlet: Themes and Memes"

Explore the Shakespeare's magnum opus via an interactive performance that highlights plot, poetry, and practical jokes! Perfect for large school assemblies or classroom guest presentations.

Target Audience: Grades 6th-12th

Cost: $400 for 45-minute interactive performance followed by optional 15-minute Q&A

"A Midsummer Night's Dream: Shakespeare Storytime"

A sensory-friendly and interactive story from one of Shakespeare's most famous plays. The audience is led by "Puck", who enlists them to help him tell the magical story of King Oberon, Queen Titania and the Donkey-headed fool! Lots of fun props, big reveals and silliness!

Time: 30-minute performance (with optional 10-15-minute Q&A

Requirements: Easy audience access to play area

ST·LOUIS
SHAKESPEARE
FESTIVAL

SHAKESPEARE SUMMER STUDIO

Registration opens in January 2026. Shakespeare summer camps for ages 9-13 and 14-19 at The Sun Theatre in Grand Center in June and July 2026.